Based in Portugal, Domkapa was founded in 2009 as a private label.

The brand holds a tremendous passion for detailed stitching, presenting several similarities to the haute-couture philosophy focused on the value of a "made by hand".

The long and fruitful path as a private label, full of experience and achievements, inspired the brand's new identity and independence, in 2017. Domkapa challenges its team to create the perfect daily meeting between design and comfort in each piece of the brand's collections.
