The Finest Craftsmanship At Maison & Objet

For a life that is worth living.

Domkapa's main mission is to turn into reality something that is endlessly comfortable, timeless, and functional. Every project is unique so don't dare to content yourself with the bare minimum: be welcomed into a premium world full of traditions that we care to maintain to this day – Maison & Objet.

Located in Paris, Maison & Objet is one of the best design trade shows in Europe that exhibits not only several high-end brands but also interesting conferences that will show you how industry is evolving and what we can do to keep up with the changes. And this year's edition is not different, especially with Domkapa.

Between January 19th and 23rd, you are going to be able to see for yourself what we are made of: through playgrounds between textures, colours and shapes, Domkapa will offer you an unbelievable exclusive experience that you don't want to miss.

Dare yourself to embark in this opportunity and discover Domkapa's new collection full of clean shapes and simple lines that will amaze you.

Together we will keep craft alive.

Will you join us?

Domkapa is an upholstery brand based in Portugal that conceives products that blend four main elements: the finest of Portuguese craftsmanship, high-quality materials and an exclusive design that stands the test of time. From sofas to beds, Domkapa has the right products for every interior design project thanks to its clean shapes and simple lines.
